MANAGERS NOTIFIED

The secretary was instructed to notify all managers that they are to co-operate with the umpires' requestto streamline the ball games or be fined $10.00.

ALL STAR GAME

A letter from Dr. J. B. Martin president of the NAL was read and he wanted to know whether or not the league presidents would get a percentage from the All Star Game in Washington on August 15th. The members voted unanimously not to give the presidents a percentage of the All Star Game. Dr. J. B. Martin was informed by telephone and the secretary is also to notify him in writing.

ADMISSION PRICE

The admission price for the All Star Game was set at $1.25 fort he bleachers; Grandstand $2.00 and $3.00 for Boxes.

Tickets

Each player participating in the game is to receive 1 ticket; 4 for each club and 6 each for the presidents.

Money set aside

$1,500 is to be set aside for the second and third place clubs plus whatever amount is decided upon for the leading hitter, pitcher and home run producer.

TERRIS MCDUFFIE

Terris McDuffie, although he had been given his release from the Newark Eagles failed to negotiate with any other league clubs for work since he had not been waived out of the league, is considered as having jumped the league and therefore subject to the five year ban.

John Mayes Trade

It was unanimously decided that the trade between the N. Y. Black Yankees and the Baltimore Elite Giants for John Mayes and William Hoskins, is null and void because at the time it was made John Mayes was ineligible and could not be traded as his reinstatement came four days after the trade had been made on June 17th and and the reinstatement took place at the June 20th meeting.

Ineligible players

It was fully agreed that trades of ineligible players can not be consumated.

The meeting adjourned at 8:15 P. M.
